PLA Portion Cup Lids Compostable - 2 Oz / Clear

PLA Portion cups and lids are a convenient and practical solution for storing and portioning smaller foods. These secure well and are leak and grease resistant, offering a mess free eating experience making them ideal for salad dressings, condiments, sauces, samples or smaller toppings. They are disposable, but durable enough to reuse again and again! Whether you want to store your food in the pantry or fridge, or take it with you on the go, our leakproof lids will ensure that spills and messes are a thing of the past. A convenient option for restaurants offering fast service, food trucks, and bulk food stores.
